To whom it may concern

It gives me great pleasure to write for Mr. Abu Suffian Bhuyan Biplob, who is an artistic director of films and TV Commercials.

I have known Mr. Biplob for over thirty years and we have worked very closely in a few movies, me as an actor and he as an Assistant director. In 2013 we filmed a movie for TV, called "Swapner Somikoron" or "Dream Equivalent", which he directed and I acted. It was based on the story of Bangladeshi expatriates living in America, of their struggles in their life. It was shot in New York and New Jersey. The film was well acclaimed by critics.

I was pleased working with Mr. Biplob. He is professional, dedicated, and creative.

I look forward to having him direct my future films.

Mr. Biplob is. fine gentlemen and I wish him all the best.

Truly Yours,

To whom it may concern

I am very honored to say that I know Abu Suffian Bhuyan Biplob very closely and have worked with him for many years. It's because of his kindness and modesty that I feel like working with him more and more. As an actor I can confidently say that he is a trained and accomplished film director. I had the opportunity to work with him a lot.

I have acted in a 25-episode television drama series (Konkaboti) produced in Thailand, a docudrama Activating Village Court in Bangladesh (Amader Gram Adalat) produced for UNDP, a TV spot produced for GATN, an advertisement film produced for Bengal Chemical Industry, also an awareness docudrama produced for various NGOs. I am impressed with his direction. He has been appreciated and awarded in various films in the country and outside the country.

I truly love him and respect him from the bottom of my heart and wish him all the very best!
